LANDAU | WHITE CROSS

To our Kindthread Friends and Partners,

On behalf of the entire Kindthread team, I would like to express our sincere gratitude to you for being Landau and White Cross customers. When we created Kindthread, it was with the idea of being a dedicated partner to our independent dealer community. You all have been integral to the success of our brands through the years, and we are excited to show you what's next. We have been investing our resources into these marquee brands to bring world-class products, elevated storytelling, and engaging retail experiences to our partners and consumers.

This is our new catalog, and it looks a little different. It features the first new collection from Landau by our Chief Product Officer, Sallian Song, who is behind some of the most successful collections in the industry. We call it Landau Forward, and it features everything customers are looking for today - advanced, sustainably-sourced fabrics and high-performing design. We are also bringing White Cross, an iconic Canadian brand known for high style and quality throughout its 100-year history, to the U.S. in a segmented and assured way.

As part of our commitment to you, along with this catalog comes a full suite of turn-key marketing solutions created to help you seamlessly drive awareness and sales. You can expect to see much more from us in the coming months - we will be sharing new products, tools, and support to ensure our continued success together.

Thank you for everything you do.

All the best,
